Commodore's Message

As the holidays approach we normally reflect on family and the things for which we are thankful. I sincerely want to reflect and recognize the fortitude and charity our community has shown under what seems to be a relentless barrage of hardships. There are many ways we have been tested and the great spirit of friendship and fortitude continues to shine. It is my hope we all have seen the last of this period and with the coming rain this week, we can wash them away and start fresh. Soon we can be focused again on a competitors PHRF rating or the next sailing course.

Speaking of dinners, or Crab Feed / Awards dinner planning is in process and you should receive a notification around the time your membership renewal reminder comes in December. The dinner will be at Buckingham Homeowner's Clubhouse and is always popular. The date will be Feb 2, 2019. I hope you will keep the date free.

If you have a chance after the smoke clears, be sure to get out on the water to see this year's migratory and seasonal visitors. There's a family of Otter that frequents the harbor and on the water are dozens, if not hundreds of Grebes, White Pelicans, Shearwaters, Gulls and Geese. The Mergansers are still rare as are the Eagles but it's quite a show regardless.

The harbor is now probably as low as we'll see until the rains create enough runoff. In Braito's we have a few spots we avoid but typically if you go where the powerboats go it's deep enough, just don't cut any corners!

I hope you all have an enjoyable Thanksgiving and we'll see you all soon!

Brad King, Commodore

Vice Commodore's Message

TURKEY RACE WON BY *IN THE RED

Smoky conditions did not keep the last race of the season from happening, as four Capri 25s took to the water for a race in very light air. The smoke reminded us all of the serious and tragic situation that is ongoing in N. California and a decision was made to contribute $100 to local recovery operations instead of the usual Turkey etc. awards that go to the first three places. Our hearts cry out for the fire victims and we encourage all who can to help out with the local relief and recovery organizations.

The smoke did keep a number of boats and crews from attending this seasons' closing race. The four boats that did race started in light wind conditions that got much lighter and eventually shut down. The starting line saw In the Red take the lead position on a port tack start with only Blew by You, crewed by Kevin Hood, John Diederich and Barry Danielli, able to get above them in a higher lane to round the windward mark at KT first. Jim Carlsen, with Betty Hood and Burt Tunzi, set their kite as they rounded and were able to move in front of Blew by You and set the pace downwind. Rounding behind them, Lakota saw Brad launch and head towards Hwy 20 while Red and Blew covered the middle of the course and drifted slightly towards Buckingham Point. Lakota is being driven by our newest member, Duane, who joined just last week and has jumped in with both feet helping Brad doublehand Lakota.

Tranquility, who had blown the starting horn, mistimed the start and was playing chase to the windward rounding where they set the kite and started working the Hwy 20 side of the lake with Lakota. Carlsen, on Red, continued to set the pace downwind while Tranquility read the light winds from behind and Val Adase started reeling in the lead boats.

At the leeward rounding at Glenhaven, Red got around on the last few puffs of air as the other 3 boats drifted in, only to park up on the rounding with Red drifting up ahead of them. As Red escaped up the lake, the following boats were actually next together with one on starboard, one on port, and Tranquility setting the kite again after rounding and all trying to head back to the start finish at Buckingham. Red kept moving and ghosted over the finish line with Tranquility being in the right position as the last puffs of air filled briefly to bring them up to the finish with Blew eventually making their way in. It was a very tough light air match with Red taking the critical starting position and then retaking it after losing it briefly at the windward rounding ... fine sailing by Jim, Burt and Betty! Congratulations to Red and their crew.

Afterwards we had a small but happy group of sailors enjoying our last BBQ/Potluck of the year with Val's crock pot of warm food awaiting us along with appetizers/snacks from Betty and Bob. Thank you all for your participation in our racing program this year and we look forward to another year with all of you after a few months off this winter. Remember that we sail every Wednesday throughout the year and this off season is a great time to practice.

Bob Robinson, Vice Commodore/Race Director

Vice Commodore's Report:

Bob Robinson stated that the Turkey Race, our last long race of the season, will be Saturday November 17 depending on the air quality. There will be a potluck get together after the race. We will be using our discussion page on our website as well as other tools and members to aid in solving this issue.

Membership Chair Report:

Brad King went over details that Chet Britz forwarded to him for presentation to the board in his absence. We stand at 69 members with 1 pending. ### Media Update:

She also has problems with the Google calendar and losing data to changes as well as poor viewing. She mentioned signing up Burt Tunzi and Mike Green to Jotform and training them on usage and retrieving data. Adopt a road was mentioned by Brad and Val has an idea of having our name put on the sign with Brassfield and we help clean the 4 mile stretch that they currently are committed to along hwy.20.

Social Report:

Brad thanked everyone for the work they did for the Commodores Ball and mentioned how fun it was even with the somewhat brief power outage we experienced. He also thanked Val and Bob for their involvement for the long race potlucks as well. Paul Richardson mentioned sending a crab feed flyer with the membership renewal packets help with attendance. Having the website set up to receive sign-ups would also help. We will discuss more under new business.

Old Business:

Committee Boat repairs and maintenance - Purchasing the new anchors can be done at any time in the near future and Brad will handle that ball. Val brought up the fact that there is a repair on the top deck (hole) that needs to be addressed before the rains set in.
